Cambridge, Massachusetts.

Office of Superintendent of Streets.

Feb. 27, 1908.

Hon. Walter C. Wardwell, Mayor.

City Hall, Cambridge.

Dear sir:-

I beg to inform you that I have today received and accepted the resignation of Mr. Henry P. Fielding who has been chief clerk in the office of the Street Department for the last five years.

I transmit with this letter correspondence between him and myself in relation to the matter.

Yours respectfully,

Geo. M. Lukas

Superintendent of Streets.

George M. Clukas, Esq.,

Superintendent of Streets.

My dear Mr. Clukas;

As I intimated to you some months ago it has been my intention for a long time to engage in the practice of law, and the arrangements I have now made in that direction will prevent my remaining longer in the office of the Superintendent of Streets. I opened offices at 15 Beacon Street, Boston, some time since, and shall devote my entire time to my business at that address.

I wish to thank you for the courtesy always shown me by you and to express my appreciation of the cordial relations that have always existed between us.

Yours very truly,

Copy.

Mr. Henry P. Fielding,

15 Beacon St., Boston, Mass.

My dear Mr. Fielding:-

I have received your letter of this date resigning your position of chief clerk in the Street Department and accept it with very great regret.

I cannot allow you to sever your connection with the department without expressing my appreciation of the conscientious and painstaking thoroughness which has always characterized your work in the office you are now leaving.

I wish you every success in your chosen profession and shall remember with pleasure the years we have passed together.

Sincerely yours,

Geo M. Cukas

Superintendant of Streets.
