To His Honor the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen of the City of Cambridge.

Gentlemen, I have been officially notified that I was elected a fence viewer of a ward one, in this city, and take this early opportunity to say that having served in the above capacity, for about twenty years, besides finding that the increasement of me at my age to have any office requiring my attention, I most respectfully decline serving the City any longer.

City of Cambridge June 17. 1854.

John Chamberlain

In Board of Aldermen 17 Apr. 1854

Read, and the resignation accepted, Sent down for Concurrence Lucius R. Paige, City Clerk.
