Dear Mayor Brooks:

I hear that you are running short of good candidates for a few vacancies! Dr. Daniel Murphy asked me to say that he would like to be veterinary: Officer Wyman would like to get his grip on the "Sergeant" plum: and young McCool of Harvard Sq. is anxious to become a policeman. McCool's father is Fr. Ryan's janitor and is one of the most competent men I have met. With best wishes for a happy year, I am

Yours Sincerely
