City of Cambridge.

In the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy Four.

An Ordinance requiring Committees to advertise for proposals for certain expenditures.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Cambridge, as follows,

Sect. 1. Whenever any Committee of the City Council shall be authorized to expend for any purpose an Appropriation exceeding in amount the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, such Committee shall cause plans and specifications to be prepared of the work to be done, or labor and materials to be furnished.

Sect. 2. The said Committee shall give notice in the newspapers in which the ordinances of the City are published, and in one or more of the Daily newspapers published in the City of Boston, of the time and place for the exhibition of such plans and specifications, and the time during which proposals for doing such work or furnishing such labor and materials will be received.

Sect. 3 The City Council whenever it deems it expedient, may authorize such appropriation to be expended, although the expense thereof shall exceed said sum of Five Hundred Dollars, without advertising for proposals.

In Common Council Sept. 15, 1874.

Passed to be enrolled,

Attest, J. W. Cotton, Clk.

Ordinance 24

Requiring committees to advertise for proposals.

1874

In Common Council
Sept. 15, 1874,
Correctly drawn—

Attest

Com. on Bills in 2d reading

In C.C. Sept 1/74
to 2d reading

Sept. 21, 1874—
Laid on table for one week.