D.P.U. 93-21

IMPERIAL TELECOM

Imperial Telecom ("Imperial") of Massachusetts, a partnership, has applied to the Department of Public Utilities ("Department") for permission to provide pay telephone services to customers within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Specifically, Imperial has applied for approval of the transfer of the certificate of public convenience and necessity of John Ayan d/b/a D.W.A. Development of Dedham, Massachusetts, previously issued by the Department in docket D.P.U. 91-94.

This investigation is officially captioned:

D.P.U. 93-21

Application of Imperial Telecom, under the provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Laws as amended, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity to provide Pay Telephone Services within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Comments, objections and requests for a public hearing on the proposed service must be made in writing with specific reasons for requesting a public hearing, and filed with the Secretary of the Department on or before March 22, 1993.

The petitioner, Imperial Telecom, is required to give notice by publications hereof once, in the Boston Globe and the Boston Herald, and to serve a copy hereof at least twenty-one (21) days prior to said date [March 18, 1993], on the attached list and to make a return of service and publication no later than March 11, 1993.

By Order of the Department,

Mary L. Cottrell, Secretary

Consent Comm. # 3 S-13

Investigation by DPU on the petition of Imperial Telecom for the approval of the transfer of the certificate of public convenience and necessity.
