WHEREAS: The popularity of inline skating, skateboarding and freestyle biking is at an all time high; and

WHEREAS: Major television networks, such as Fox, MTV and ESPN regularly broadcast these co-called "X-TREME" sports; and

WHEREAS: There is a large population of "X-TREME" athletes in Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: Currently there is no place for these talented young Cantabrigians to practice their sport exclusively, free from vehicle traffic and pedestrians; and

WHEREAS: Two Cambridge residents were recently arrested at Cambridge Rindge and Latin School and charged with trespassing while skating on the school grounds;

WHEREAS: The Green Ribbon Open Space Committee Report recognized a need for a "Stunt Park" in Cambridge to minimize conflicts between inline skaters, skateboarders and freestyle bicyclists, and other casual recreational activities that occur in open public plazas; now there be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to study the feasibility of locating and constructing a stunt park in Cambridge either at a site specifically designated for said park, or as an addition to an existing park undergoing a substantial renovation; and be it further ORDERED: That the City Manager report back to the City Council the results of said study.

In City Council July 31, 2000.
