WHEREAS: New Bedford instituted a multifaceted approach to policing and formed the Neighborhood Policing Partnership; and

WHEREAS: The program included opening a substation in a high-risk area and the goal of the partnership was to reduce crime, create a safe neighborhood and improve the quality of life for residents; and

WHEREAS: The partnership created secure community centers, hosting many activities designed to reduce crime and break down barriers between the police and the community; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge Police Department has implemented many of the aspects of this partnership and the Police Commissioner has a plan to include many more aspects of this program in the daily life of the department, not as a program but as a way of doing business; and

WHEREAS: Some additional assistance may be needed from other departments and the administration to take the much needed additional steps to fully implement a true partnership; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manger is hereby requested to consult with the Police Commissioner and all other appropriate departments to report back to this City Council on a way in which we can take additional steps to fully implement a Neighborhood Policing Partnership in Cambridge.
