MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR WOLF

WHEREAS: Throughout twelve integral decades, St. Paul A.M.E. Church, Cambridge, in keeping with its historic tradition, has progressively manifested its creed of concern and assistance to those in need; and

WHEREAS: In 1987 with the establishment of the Hildebrand Family Self Help Center, a non profit organization, St. Paul continues to shine as a Christian beacon light of hope to the destitute and despondent; and

WHEREAS: Two parcels of church owned properties have been previously rehabilitated and converted into "Family Lodging Houses" to create transitional housing for fourteen homeless Cambridge families; and

WHEREAS: Through the unselfish efforts and kind contributions of individuals, churches, banks, foundations, government, and institutions, the Hildebrand Center is presently preparing to construct five new units of affordable housing at 109 Pine Street, Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: To celebrate the initiation of this worthy project, a ground breaking ceremony will be held at the premises on Thursday, June 25, 1992; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That I, Kenneth E. Reeves, Mayor of the City of Cambridge and the entire City Council, do hereby applaud and commend the Hildebrand Center of St. Paul A.M.E. Church for their generous contributions, deep concern, and steadfast commitment to the betterment of life for the less fortunate.

In City Council June 22, 1992.
