Walter L. Boyle of Arlington, 58; Cambridge police commissioner

Walter L. Boyle of Arlington, commissioner of the Cambridge Police Department, died Saturday in Symmes Hospital in Arlington. He was 58.

Mr. Boyle was born in Cambridge and graduated from Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School in 1956.

He joined the Cambridge Police Department 30 years ago as a walking patrol officer. He served as commissioner for about a month before his death.

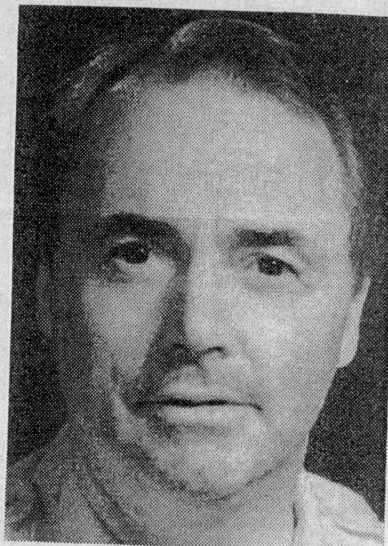

Mr. Boyle graduated from Northeastern University in 1980 with a master's degree in public administration. He graduated with honors with a bachelor of science degree in law enforcement from Northeastern University in 1978.

He served in the US Navy from 1956 to 1960.

Mr. Boyle activated a selective certification process so that Cambridge police would reflect the ethnic diversity of the community.

He established the department's Domestic Violence Unit and also initiated computer training for Cambridge police officers and support staff.

Mr. Boyle received awards for his performance from the Cam-
