RE: Late Order - Holiday Food Drive
DATE: November 30, 2001

Whereas food pantries provide a fundamental and essential service for City residents, who because of insufficient resources are unable to purchase food for themselves and their family;

Whereas the City wishes to supplement the emergency food resources of Cambridge providers; and

Whereas the City wishes to ensure that all Cambridge residents, regardless of means, may have a joyous and bountiful holiday season;

Now, therefore the City requests that all residents of the City participate in donating to the Cambridge Food Pantry Network's Annual Holiday Food Drive. The Food Drive will take place December 10-15th at public schools and other municipal buildings throughout the City. The Food drive will directly benefit the twelve neighborhood-based food pantries throughout the City of Cambridge.
