

December 27th
1928

To His Honor the Mayor -
Edmund W. Quinn

My dear Sir,

May I express to you,
& through you, the City Council, the deep appreciation that I feel of the honor done to my sister, Miss Alice Longfellow, by the resolutions adopted by the Council & approved by you -

I am sure that Miss Longfellow was greatly interested in the work of the School Committee when she served upon it, & was glad to be of any service that she could be to the City -

Very respectfully,

Annie L. Thorp

Mrs J. G. Thorp
115 Brattle St
Cambridge

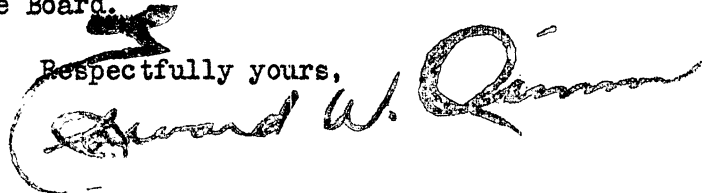

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CAMBRIDGE, MASSACHUSETTS

January 2, 1929

The Honorable, the City Council:

I transmit herewith a communication from Mrs. J. G. Thorp, 115 Brattle St., Cambridge, in which she expresses appreciation of the honor done to her sister, the late Miss Alice Longfellow, by a resolution adopted by your Honorable Board.

Respectfully yours,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read "Edward W. Quinn". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, prominent "Q" at the end.

Mayor.

COMMUNICATION

Mayor, Treasurer

Mrs. Joseph E. Thorp.

expressing appreciation for the resolutions adopted by City Council in memory of her sister the late Miss Blue:

Longfellow.

JAN 8 1929

RECORDED ON FILE

W. H. B. 2