Women's pro soccer team seeks local nominees

The Boston Renegades women's soccer team is looking to honor local female athletes as part of the annual National Girls and Women in Sports Day.

The Renegades have joined forces with the Boston Area Community Awards and Grant Program and will recognize award winners with special ceremonies at the Renegades season home opener and a local collegiate basketball game.

Awards given in past years include: Donna DeVarona Spirit of Sport Award; Wilma Rudolph Courage Award; Sports Girl of the Year (for middle school); Sports Women of the Year (high school); Coach of the Year; and Fit Women of the Year.

The theme of the celebration is "All Girls Allowed." The Renegades encourage and nurture female participation in sports.

"We want girls and women to understand that communities respect and value their participation in sports," said Kristen Supko, Renegades star midfield playmaker.

"So much of our success as the Renegades and as individuals is due to the encouragement we have received from fans, coaches and whole communities," she continued. "Now we want to give something back, and hopefully help some girls and women achieve their own success stories."

The Renegades are looking for nominations from local parents, teachers and coaches. The nomination deadline is Dec. 20. For more information and forms, call Marybeth Lamb at 730-7000 or the Renegades office at (508) 870-0057.

The National Girls and Women in Sports Day will be celebrated Feb. 4. The Renegades Soccer Academy will be running several events and activities in conjunction with the foundation. *
