IN CITY COUNCIL

January 28, 1991

VICE MAYOR REEVES

- WHEREAS: The people of the city of Cambridge can point with great pride to its rich diversity of cultures; and
- WHEREAS: This diversity offers us a window into the histories and lives of peoples from many different parts of the world; and
- WHEREAS: The Cambridge Rainbow and Komite Kreyol are presenting two screenings of the film "Sugar Cane Alley" which are free to the public-- one on Friday, February 1 at 7:30 p.m. at the Graham and Parks School, and on Saturday, February 2nd at 4:00 p.m. at the Fitzgerald School; and
- WHEREAS: "Sugar Cane Alley" recreates the world of a young boy growing up on a Caribbean sugar plantation in 1931 and is a beautifully woven story which captures the tender relationship between the boy and his grandmother amidst the struggle for a better life in the French Caribbean; and
- WHEREAS: This wonderful film is directed by Euzhan Palcy, a third world woman, and is in French and Creole, with English sub-titles; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council offer its warm congratulations to the Cambridge Rainbow and Komite Kreyol for providing the people of this city with the opportunity to enjoy this fine film.
