

City of Cambridge

14.

IN CITY COUNCIL

February 13, 1995

MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR MYERS
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is truly an international City, long regarded as the hub of the academic world, and a City whose population includes people of every race, class, color, and creed; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has long been proud of its diversity, and of the people who make it so; and

WHEREAS: This Cambridge City Council was much distressed to have learned of the death of MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN February 1st of this year; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is proud to have known MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN, for when an individual contributes to the color and brilliance of this CITY, each of us may shine that much more brightly; and

WHEREAS: In his laboratory at MIT, the institute by the river, MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN was a veritable "Da Vinci" of cyberspace, not only his chosen field of study but in fact his calling; and

WHEREAS: This City Council and the City at large recognize the significant contributions of MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN in this age of information; and

WHEREAS: MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN, a man of ever eclectic individual, is most fondly remembered by his friends soaring down Massachusetts Avenue on his skateboard, a blaze of fiery red hair and baggy pants;

WHEREAS: This City will surely miss this MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN, and the sight of his fearless non-conformity, for from every cafe table and dance floor in Central Square, this City has received the gift of his genuine warmth and high-spiritedness; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does express its sincere condolences to multitude of friends and family of MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN, in this, their time - and indeed our time - of loss, as a community.

In City Council February 13, 1995

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

14.

IN CITY COUNCIL

February 13, 1995

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is truly an international City, long regarded as the hub of the academic world, and a City whose population includes people of every race, class, color, and creed; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge has long been proud of its diversity, and of the people who make it so; and

WHEREAS: This Cambridge City Council was much distressed to have learned of the death of MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN February 1st of this year; and

WHEREAS: The City of Cambridge is proud to have known MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN, for when an individual contributes to the color and brilliance of this CITY, each of us may shine that much more brightly; and

WHEREAS: In his laboratory at MIT, the institute by the river, MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN was a veritable "Da Vinci" of cyberspace, not only his chosen field of study but in fact his calling; and

WHEREAS: This City Council and the City at large recognize the significant contributions of MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN in this age of information; and

WHEREAS: MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN, a man of ever eclectic individual, is most fondly remembered by his friends soaring down Massachusetts Avenue on his skateboard, a blaze of fiery red hair and baggy pants;

WHEREAS: This City will surely miss this MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN, and the sight of his fearless non-conformity, for from every cafe table and dance floor in Central Square, this City has received the gift of his genuine warmth and high-spiritedness; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does express its sincere condolences to multitude of friends and family of MARTIN RICHARD FRIEDMAN, in this, their time - and indeed our time - of loss, as a community.

Entire membership.

Consent Order #14

R-132

Mayor Reeves and entire membership re: Death resolution on Martin Richard Friedman.

In City Council February 13, 1995

Order adopted