

City of Cambridge

6.
IN CITY COUNCIL

April 6, 1981

COUNCILLOR VELLUCCI

ORDERED:

That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to provide a comparison between his budget and the recommended savings and increased revenues as suggested in the report by the Proposition 2½ Committee representing individual City Councillors; and be it further

ORDERED:

That the City Manager advise the City Council what effect, if any, the report has on the Governor and Legislature, inasmuch as the news media (radio and newspapers) have been announcing that the City of Cambridge would not be adversely affected by Proposition 2½ (report page 21). "The Task Force believes that the recommended actions are practicable, can be carried out by the City without need for action by the state, and will not result in the impairment of services and programs currently provided by the City."
