The Honorable; The City Council:

I am an artist whose work was bought by the Cambridge Arts Council for the Cambridge City Hospital. I would like to thank Mr. John Chandler, Ms. Jennifer Simpson, and the rest of the Arts Council for the unusual idea of purchasing several smaller works to be displayed throughout the hospital. Unlike the typical single large commission, this policy not only helps support many artists but allows hospital staff and patients to enjoy a diversity of styles and imagery.

I hope the 1% For Art policy continues and, in particular, this method of purchase as it certainly enhances our public spaces and helps support a large number of artists.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth Rickert
