WHEREAS: ASSOCIATE JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER, of the Supreme Court of the United States, had certainly had an illustrious and successful career in service to the public good; and

WHEREAS: JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER, a graduate of Stanford University, Oxford University, and Harvard University Law School, is no stranger to the Fair City of Cambridge; and

WHEREAS: JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER began his career during the 1964 term of the United States Supreme Court, where he served as law clerk to Justice Arthur J. Goldberg, and from 1965 to 1967 worked as Special Assistant to the head of the Justice Department's Antitrust Division; and

WHEREAS: From 1967 to 1980, while serving as a Professor of Law at Harvard University, JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER continued his commitment to public service, serving as an Assistant Watergate Special Prosecutor in 1973, Special Counsel to the Senate Judiciary Committee in 1975, and as the Senate Judiciary Committee's Chief Counsel from 1979 to 1980; and

WHEREAS: In 1980 JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER was appointed Judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the First Circuit, and became the Circuit's chief Judge in 1990; and

WHEREAS: In addition to these outstanding achievements, JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER has served as a member of the Judicial Conference of the United States, as well as the United States Sentencing Commission, and has published numerous books and articles on the subject of administrative law and government regulation; and

WHEREAS: With his appointment by President Clinton August of 1994 to the nation's highest court - the Supreme Court of these United States - the career of JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER has truly come full circle to the place where it so honorably began; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does hereby sincerely commend JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER on a long and notable career in law and public service; and be it further

RESOLVED: That this Cambridge City Council does thank JUSTICE STEPHEN BREYER on this, the occasion of his return to his onetime home, the City of Cambridge - a visit which we hope will be but one of many to our Fair City.
