WHEREAS: Mr. Eric Arnold, a resident of West Cambridge has recently had his book "A Day in the Life of a Police Officer" published; and

WHEREAS: This book chronicles a day in the life of one of Cambridge's finest, Officer Kathy Murphy as she performs her tour of duty; and

WHEREAS: The pictures of Officer Murphy with her family, and on duty portray an officer both as a professional, and as a member of the community, and as a role model for young women who may aspire to have both a career in law enforcement and a family; and

WHEREAS: The concept of "community policing" is illustrated very well and will make a child much more familiar with it, as they see the faces in the book come to life on the streets of Cambridge; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council go on record as congratulating Eric Arnold on the publication of his book, and wish him well in his further endeavors, and further be it resolved, that the City Council urge the Police Commissioner to make use of this publication wherever possible to make school children familiar with the concept of community policing.
