IN CITY COUNCIL

September 14, 1981

COUNCILLOR GRAHAM

ORDERED: That this City Council go on record congratulating City Councillor Leonard J. Russell for his successful efforts in securing, in record time, a Bailey Bridge from the National Guard to serve as a temporary replacement, pending construction of a new bridge at the intersection of Huron and Aberdeen Avenues, which bridge will provide ready access for our Police and Fire Departments to the West Cambridge area and will provide added security for the residents of that area.
