Mayor Francis H. Duehay has announced the formation of a special committee to review and expedite planning and action to establish high school and adult outdoor athletic and recreation space at the site of the former city dump and at Russell and St. Peter's Fields.

"These plans have been in the discussion stage for ten years and little action has occurred," said Mayor Duehay. "My purpose in creating this committee is to focus the city's management and political leadership in pushing the long-needed project forward."

Members of the special committee are:

Mayor Francis H. Duehay
Vice-Mayor Alfred W. LaRosa
Councillor Thomas W. Danehy
School Committee Member Alfred Fantini
School Committee Member Jane F. Sullivan
City Manager Robert W. Healy
Deputy City Manager Richard Rossi
Superintendent of Schools Dr. Robert S. Peterkin
Assistant Superintendent of Schools Oliver Brown
Susan Noonan-Foster (Cambridge Teachers Association)
James Lowery (North Cambridge Stabilization Team)
Shippen Page (Resident of Bellis Circle)

Serving as technical resource people to the committee will be a number of city department staff including:

Assistant City Manager for Human Services Jill Herald
Recreation Director Paul Ryder
Les Barber and Dick Easter of the Community Development
Department
City Engineer Joan Lastovica
Commissioner of Public Works Everett Kennedy

Also serving will be school athletic personnel including:

Acting Athletic Director Lynn Yeamans
Boys Track Coach Fran McCarthy
Girls Track Coach Joe Sousa
Football Coach Wadie Gergaigery
Boys Soccer Coach Andy Inglis
Baseball Coach Bill Fulginite
