Dear Councillors,

How kind Councillor Triantafillou was to propose, and you all were to adopt, the official resolution of congratulations for my new book, Angela The Upside-Down Girl. I am delighted to receive this resolution—and honored.

One of the themes that emerges in these stories has to do with citizenship, with the pleasures and sense of identity that comes from participating in the life of a beloved community. So I am quite touched to receive a letter from a host of dedicated community builders such as yourselves.

Angela is doing wonderfully well, and is giving a national audience glimpses of one of the remarkable, treasured neighborhoods of our city. But the most important readers, to me, are neighbors and family, so I am tremendously grateful for the local support for this book.

With heartfelt thanks for your thoughtfulness, and best wishes, I am very truly yours,

Emily Hiestand
