To whom it may concern:

The town clerk informed me that your office manages proposals for vending licenses. As a representative of Cultural Survival, Inc., I would like to petition the council for a temporary vendor's license, but I am unfamiliar with the procedure.

Cultural Survival is a private, non-profit organization, established in 1972, that has supported projects on five continents to help indigenous peoples survive, both physically and culturally, the changes which contact with industrial society brings.

Cultural Survival would like to erect a small vending table in the Harvard Square area for one day in October, 1986. We would distribute free information about our organization and sell copies of our magazines, posters and t-shirts from this table.

I would appreciate any guidelines or information that you can provide concerning the licensing procedure.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

William Allen
