Whereas: The newspapers reported that the city of Boston had no legal recourse against the reckless bicyclist because he was not a registered bicycle courier, and

Whereas: The city of Cambridge, although it does not have laws governing bicycle couriers, is currently stepping up enforcement of "Same road- Same laws" for bicyclists including stopping and fining cyclists who do not stop for traffic lights, therefore be it

Ordered: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to report to the Council what recourse the city of Cambridge would have in an accident similar to the recent Boston accident, specifically: would we be able to press charges for reckless cycling, and if not, what legal steps can the Council take to be sure that this would a possibility in a similar situation.
