In City Council

WHEREAS:

Edward F. Field, a member of the City Council in the years 1928-29 has passed to his eternal reward, we the members of the City Council of 1932-33 would testify to the esteem in which he was held throughout his comparatively brief span of life.

He was a young man, well and favorably known among the members of the printers' craft when he launched forth as a candidate for public office in 1927. The innate nobility of his character endeared him to all his associates in the City Government during his two years' service and, as he mingled in the political life of the city, he drew to himself a large circle of warm friends. In many social and fraternal organizations he was actively interested and all these will miss his cheery presence. Easy of approach, companionable and gentle, his absence will be severely felt and thousands will mourn his passing away.

It is therefore
