LEGAL AD

D.P.U. 97-39

On March 4, 1997, New England Telephone and Telegraph Company d/b/a NYNEX ("NYNEX") and Frontier Telemanagement Inc. ("Frontier") filed with the Department of Public Utilities ("Department") a negotiated interconnection agreement ("Agreement"), pursuant to § 252(e) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 ("the Act"). The Agreement was executed on February 11, 1997. Copies of the Agreement were provided to the parties to Local Competition, D.P.U. 94-185, and to the companies that have made requests of NYNEX to negotiate pursuant to § 252 of the Act.

The Act requires that the Department approve or reject the Agreement (with written findings as to any deficiencies) within 90 days of its filing (i.e., by June 2, 1997). §§ 252(e)(1), (4). The Department may only reject the Agreement if it finds that:

- (1) the Agreement (or any portion thereof) discriminates against a telecommunications carrier not a party to the Agreement, or
- (2) the implementation of the Agreement or portion is not consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity.

The Department has opened this investigation, docketed as D.P.U. 97-39, to investigate the Agreement. This proceeding will not be conducted as an adjudication. Rather, the Department will solicit written comments from interested parties and then render a decision.

Accordingly, the Department seeks comment from interested parties as to whether it should approve or reject the Agreement. If an interested party recommends that the Department reject the Agreement, that interested party should specify in detail how the Agreement is deficient under either or both of the above two standards.

Persons interested in commenting on the Agreement may file written comments with:
