Teaching came naturally to Tom. He impressed his ideals, ideas and mathematical formulas upon his student body. Over the years his many talents gave impetus to his career. His administrative ability as an Assistant Principal sat comfortably on his shoulders. His devotion to duty, concern for his staff and his students, made our jobs much easier to perform. Thank you, Tom.

Eileen has devoted her years to the teaching of little children. She has been an intuitive and understanding teacher. She possesses a special insight into the hearts and minds of her pupils. She has performed her duties in the true sense of charity. She has been a dedicated, patient, concerned, caring and sharing teacher. She has displayed a genuine attachment for those she has had the pleasure of teaching. For these qualities and for the many more not mentioned, we salute you, Eileen.
