CITY OF CAMBRIDGE
MASSACHUSETTS

MASSACHUSETTS
OF L. CARTER Commanding Mayor Alfred
Vullocci on his Stewardship as Mayor of Cambridge
In City Council March 29 19 71

In City Council March 29 19 71

[illegible]

March 29, 1971

CITY COUNCIL

By Councillor Thomas Coates

Whereas

The Honorable Alfred E. Vellucci was duly elected Mayor of the City of Cambridge, on March 30, 1970, and,

Whereas

I, Thomas Coates, proponent of this order was not one of those who cast his mayoral ballot for the Honorable Alfred E. Vellucci,

Whereas

I now wish to attest that, during his entire public career the Honorable Alfred E. Vellucci has been and continues to be a true and dedicated servant of all the people, who is doing an outstanding job of keeping our City together, despite the incessant caterwauling of certain so called citizen groups and so called liberal individuals who resent and resist any true and honest application of liberality, and

Whereas

The Honorable Alfred E. Vellucci, despite the cacophony of all the detractors in any forum, can reflect on his Stewardship with much pride and sense of accomplishment which fact history will amply record, therefore be it

Resolved

That this Council join with me and go on record commending the Stewardship of said Alfred E. Vellucci as Mayor of the City of Cambridge, and be it

Ordered

That copies of this resolution, suitably engrossed be forwarded to the Honorable Alfred E. Vellucci as well as the members of his immediate family.
