IN CITY COUNCIL

Councillor William H. Walsh

June 13, 1988

WHEREAS: More often than not, negative criticism attracts headlines and positive efforts to do one's job well are taken for granted without headlines or public recognition; and

WHEREAS: It is clear from reading a copy of a memorandum dated June 3, 1988 to the City Manager from Jeremiah Lucey, Supervisor of Sewers for the City of Cambridge, (copy received by Council Members) that Mr. Lucey exercised excellent initiative and persistence in tracking down at least one of the sources of an oil spill detected just downstream from the City's stormdrain outfall at Cambridge Park Drive. The determination to find the cause together with the referenced cooperation with Commissioner Sommers, representatives of DEQE and a representative of the Maguire Group, convey the picture of a dedicated city employee who does his job well; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council salutes Jeremiah Lucey for responding effectively to the presence of this hazardous waste ; and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk be and is requested to prepare a duly engrossed copy of this Resolution for presentation to Jeremiah Lucey.
