

City of Cambridge

1.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 11, 1993

MAYOR REEVES
COUNCILLOR MYERS
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR WOLF

WHEREAS: The Cambridge Black Pastors Conference is an association of Afro-American Clergy, joined in Christian unity embracing a singular purpose - SERVICE; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge Black Pastors Conference will sponsor their Fifth Annual Martin Luther King Convocation on Sunday, January 17, 1993 at St. Paul A.M.E. Church, Cambridge at 6:00 p.m. celebrating the life of a committed Black Pastor who lived his life in struggle so that millions who came after him could live their lives in dignity; and

WHEREAS: Rev. Brian Green, President of the New England District of the United Pentecostal Council of the Assemblies of God, Inc. will be the speaker for this memorable event; and

WHEREAS: The illustrious Mr. James Hawkins, Director of Operations, Polaroid Corporation will be the recipient of the newly established Winona Boardley Service Award; and

WHEREAS: In the selfless tradition of Dr. King the Cambridge Black Pastors Conference has impacted the community in many ways as they become increasingly active in addressing the vital economic, moral, and social issues of people of all ages;

WHEREAS: Dr. King believed it was better to die on your feet than to live on your knees; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby salute the Cambridge Black Pastors Conference on remembrance of the 62nd birthday celebration of a man whose dream in the justification of all mankind spanned oceans and is still rooted in the hearts of people.

In City Council January 11, 1993.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

1.

IN CITY COUNCIL

January 11, 1993

MAYOR REEVES

WHEREAS: The Cambridge Black Pastors Conference is an association of Afro-American Clergy, joined in Christian unity embracing a singular purpose - SERVICE; and

WHEREAS: The Cambridge Black Pastors Conference will sponsor their Fifth Annual Martin Luther King Convocation on Sunday, January 17, 1993 at St. Paul A.M.E. Church, Cambridge at 6:00 p.m. celebrating the life of a committed Black Pastor who lived his life in struggle so that millions who came after him could live their lives in dignity; and

WHEREAS: Rev. Brian Green, President of the New England District of the United Pentecostal Council of the Assemblies of God, Inc. will be the speaker for this memorable event; and

WHEREAS: The illustrious Mr. James Hawkins, Director of Operations, Polaroid Corporation will be the recipient of the newly established Winona Boardley Service Award; and

WHEREAS: In the selfless tradition of Dr. King the Cambridge Black Pastors Conference has impacted the community in many ways as they become increasingly active in addressing the vital economic, moral, and social issues of people of all ages;

WHEREAS: Dr. King believed it was better to die on your feet than to live on your knees; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That this City Council does hereby salute the Cambridge Black Pastors Conference on remembrance of the 62nd birthday celebration of a man whose dream in the justification of all mankind spanned oceans and is still rooted in the hearts of people.

myra Groomer
10/15/92
CONSENT, ORDER #1

R-25

Mayor Reeves re: Cambridge Black Pastors Conference.

In City Council,

January 11, 1993

Orders Adopted