

City of Cambridge

6.

IN CITY COUNCIL

March 16, 1981

MAYOR FRANCIS H. DUEHAY

- WHEREAS: The March of Dimes which contributed immeasurably to the victory against polio is now devoting its efforts toward the prevention of birth defects which is the nation's number one child health problem; and
- WHEREAS: The activities of the March of Dimes are dependent upon funds raised locally in order to further its programs of local health education, medical services and research in the city of Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: On April 26, 1981, the March of Dimes will conduct its annual Walkathon to raise funds in which local civic, business and government leaders will join with the Cambridge citizens in the fight against birth defects; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That this City Council hereby declare Sunday, April 26, 1981 as
- MARCH OF DIMES WALKAMERICA SUNDAY IN CAMBRIDGE
- and be it further
- RESOLVED: That all the people of Cambridge cooperate and participate in a total community effort
