TO: The Honorable Members of the
Cambridge City Council

RE: 150TH ANNIVERSARY PARADE

I was so enthused about the spirit of the day, as exemplified throughout the city, that I cannot refrain from sending this letter to the entire City Council, complimenting all.

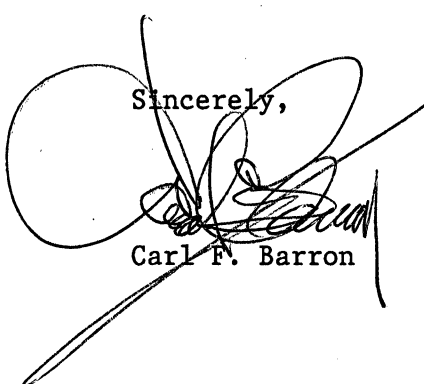

I particularly commend the Committee, Councillors Michael Sullivan and Kathy Born, The Cambridge Arts Council, and all of those who did such a marvelous job of planning and coordinating, especially the Cambridge City Departments, such as the Police Department, the Public Works Department, etc. If I have left anyone out, please convey the fact that I know there are a tremendous number of people who contributed in various ways.

The most striking fact, to both my wife and myself, was the spirit of the entire event. It was nice to see people take an interest in their community. It was nicer to have them appear to show their pride in being a part of the City of Cambridge.

My personal thanks for all the courtesy shown to my wife and myself to all of the members of the Cambridge City Council whom we saw, the city officials, and all of the people of Cambridge. It brought back many memories, by some considered to be outmoded, but in which I take a great deal of personal pride and enjoyment, the love for all of the city and all of its parts as well as a touch of nostalgia in remembering many events over the years in which pride of city and patriotism were at the top of the list for good Americans and Cantabrigians.

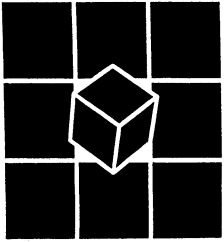

My best wishes.

Sincerely,

Carl F. Barron
