COMMENTS: Hi Michael,

I was talking to Paul Schiaver on Friday about efforts we are making to assist community. He thought I should pass information on to you so perhaps, if you think it is appropriate, you may bring it before council to actively have City become involved.

We are sponsoring a coat drive to honor the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King beginning 1/16 until 2/29 (through February to celebrate Black History Month) all post offices in the 021/022 are participating, including the post offices in Cambridge. Post Office to Help "Keep the Dream Alive" by - Celebrating Martin Luther King Day - Supporting Coat Drive

The Boston Post Office will be honoring Martin Luther King Day with special displays at several postal locations. In addition the Boston Post Office will be supporting an annual "Coat Drive" for needy families in remembrance of Dr. King.

The displays will consist of some of photographs and documents from the civil rights movement either written by or concerning Dr. King. One of these displays will be available in the lobby of the Fort Point Station at 25 Dorchester Ave. in downtown Boston and is open to the public. Another display will be for employees of the Postal Service and will be located in the cafeteria of the main Processing Plant also on Dorchester Ave. Other offices in the Boston area may also have displays in honor of Dr. King's birthday. The displays will be up from January 12 through 19.

In addition, all offices in the Boston District including the main Processing Plant and Airport Mail Center will be participating in the annual coat drive this year. Anyone wishing to donate a coat, mittens or new socks may drop them off at one of the participating Boston area post offices. All coats (any size), new or used, should be in usable and clean condition and deposited at a post office between January 16 through February 29, 1996.

"We are very pleased to be a part of this effort," said Lillian Buckley, Diversity Development Specialist for the Boston Postal District. "Both the coat drive and the displays in honor of Dr. King are a fitting tribute to this great man and are in keeping with our theme: 'Keep the Dream Alive.'"
