CAMBRIDGE, Dec 15 1901

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

Respectfully represents Edward E Dwyer of Cambridge that on the 27 day of November A. D. 1901 he was in the employ of the City of Cambridge in the Police Department as a Reserve Patrolman, and was then engaged at work at or near cor Mass Ave & Norfolk Street, and while in the performance of his duties, without any fault on his part, sustained injuries by being struck in the face while arresting Frank M. Doherty for (Here state in full how, and the person or thing by whom you were injured, and in what part of your person you were injured.)

assault and battery

that by reason of said injuries he has been unable to perform any duties as such Reserve Patrolman from the time of his injury to and including December 6 a period of for which I received half pay nine working days, and, during all this time, he did not work, solely because of his inability so to do by reason of these injuries; that his inability so to work has not been increased or extended because of any other independent prior injury, ailment or disease known to him, or by reason of any act or negligence on his part; that he returned to his work the 7th day of December, A. D. 1901

He hereby agrees to give full and complete information to the City Solicitor, City Physician, and all other agents sent him in behalf of the City, of all the facts and circumstances relating to or in any way affecting said injury, and his present, past and future condition of the body and health.

Wherefore he prays for a continuance of pay during the time of disability as aforesaid.
