

City of Cambridge.

In Board of Aldermen, July 18 1861

Amendments ~~Ordered,~~

Whereas the City Council in the year 1855 adjudged that the Public Necessity and Convenience required that Brattle St should be widened at a point near the corner of Ash St and said Widening was made and the expense defrayed by the City as per plan now on file Resolved that the Public Convenience and Necessity requires that said Line should not be infringed upon or pressed for by James Greenleaf Esq—

Whitening of Brattle St.

July 15. 1861

29