Cambridge City Council
City Clerk (Council Communication)

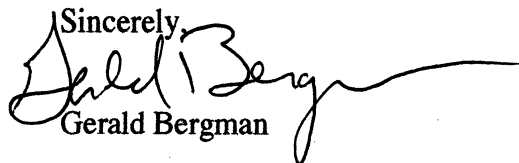

As a member of the "Friends of the Area Four Youth Center" I helped to organize, on behalf of young people, many avenues of input into various phases of the construction and post-construction development of the Area Four Youth Center. One issue which caught the interest of many young people of Area Four was the opportunity created by the 1% public art line item in the construction contract. Preliminary discussions were held and youth excitement was high.

Then....

Art Council directors/employees went to court/jail, and apparently the money went with them. The result: no public art for Area Four and the members of the Area Four Youth Center.

Where did the money go?

Please return the money to the young people of Area Four.

Sincerely,

Gerald Bergman
