

Cambridge, November, 1st, 1862.

To the Honorable, the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Cambridge,

The undersigned respectfully asks that the crossing stones near his house, at the corner of Waterhouse and Garden Streets, may be relaid. They are now lower than the adjoining surface of Garden Street, and are nearly useless for the purpose for which they were originally laid.

Your dutiful citizen,

Richard M. Hodges.
