25 Beacon Street, Boston, Mass.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Sept. 28, 1926

My dear Mr. Burke:

I am much indebted to you for your courtesy in transmitting to me a copy of the resolutions of respect to the memory of my father, Dr. Charles W. Eliot, as adopted by the City Council at its meeting on September 21st and approved by His Honor the Mayor on September 24th.

I deeply appreciate this appropriate expression of respect and good will. My father lived in Cambridge from the time he entered Harvard College in 1849 until his death in 1926. He built there his first home and his body now lies in Mount Auburn. He was always an active and loyal citizen, keenly interested in the welfare of the city and its people, his friends and neighbors. He took pleasure in the harmonious relations existing between the University and the City and endeavored in all ways to promote and maintain good understanding and generous cooperation.

I present my hearty thanks and salutations to the officers of the City Government and members of the Council.

Respectfully yours,

Mr. Frederick H. Burke,
