

43.

Councillor Katherine Triantafillou

APPRECIATION AND RECOGNITION

WHEREAS: As a result of the enactment of Chapter 223A and the City's implementation of its provisions;

WHEREAS: The shop steward of that union and negotiator will be included in the first group of retirement on June 30, 1995;

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to her fellow workers included five years of labor-management negotiation, two collective bargaining agreements, countless grievance representations, and all of this in the most thorough, conscientious and principled manner;

WHEREAS: That union representation has included this most difficult period of negotiating the membership's own lay-offs;

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to both her co-workers and to the administration of her department have been characterized by tremendous energy, initiative, integrity, leadership, effectiveness, and good humor;

WHEREAS: That initiative has included playing a critical role in the functioning of the department in this difficult time of transition;

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to the City of Cambridge included her indispensable role in the movement to ensure equal treatment to domestic partners;

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein, a cum laude graduate of Boston University School of Law, has served the City as Assistant Counsel since 1990 with great distinction; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City extend it's thanks and appreciation to Susan Weinstein as she leaves employment with the City, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation.

KT's
Back up!

43

Councillor Katherine Triantafillou

APPRECIATION AND ~~RE~~COGNITION OF SUSAN WEINSTEIN

WHEREAS: As a result of the enactment of Chapter 282, the City's dismantling of rent control, and the City's implementation of its lay-off plans as negotiated with the NOLSW;

WHEREAS: The shop steward of that union and negotiating team member, Susan Weinstein, will be included in the first group of rent control employees to be laid off, on June 30, 1995;

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to her fellow union members have included five years of labor-management negotiation, two contract negotiations, countless grievance representations, and all of this in the most thorough, conscientious and principled manner;

WHEREAS: That union representation has included this most difficult period of negotiating the membership's own lay-offs;

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to both her co-workers and to the administration of her department have been characterized by tremendous energy, initiative, integrity, leadership, effectiveness, and good humor;

WHEREAS: That initiative has included playing a critical role in the functioning of the department in this difficult time of transition;

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to the City of Cambridge included her indispensable role in the movement to ensure equal treatment to domestic partners;

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein, a cum laude graduate of Boston University School of Law, has served the City as Assistant Counsel since 1990 with great distinction; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City extend its thanks and appreciation to Susan Weinstein as she leaves employment with the City, and be it further

RESOLVED: That the City Clerk is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation.

City of Cambridge

43.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 26, 1995

COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
COUNCILLOR MYERS
MAYOR REEVES
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY

WHEREAS: As a result of the enactment of Chapter 282, the City's dismantling of rent control, and the City's implementation of its lay-off plans as negotiated with the NOLSW; and

WHEREAS: The shop steward of that union and negotiating team member, Susan Weinstein, will be included in the first group of rent control employees to be laid off, on June 30, 1995; and

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to her fellow union members have included five years of labor-management negotiation; two contract negotiations; countless grievance representations; and all of this in the most thorough, conscientious and principled manner; and

WHEREAS: That union representation has included this most difficult period of negotiating the membership's own lay-offs; and

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to both her co-workers and to the administration of her department have been characterized by tremendous energy, initiative, integrity, leadership, effectiveness and good humor; and

WHEREAS: That initiative has included playing a critical role in the functioning of the department in this difficult time of transition; and

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to the City of Cambridge included her indispensable role in the movement to ensure equal treatment to domestic partners; and

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein, a cum laude graduate of Boston University School of Law, has served the City as Assistant Council since 1990 with great distinction; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City extend its thanks and appreciation to Susan Weinstein as she leaves employment with the City; and be it further

RESOLVED: that the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Susan Weinstein on behalf of the entire City Council.

In City Council June 26, 1995

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "D. Margaret Drury".

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

43.

IN CITY COUNCIL

June 26, 1995

COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: As a result of the enactment of Chapter 282, the City's dismantling of rent control, and the City's implementation of its lay-off plans as negotiated with the NOLSW; and

WHEREAS: The shop steward of that union and negotiating team member, Susan Weinstein, will be included in the first group of rent control employees to be laid off, on June 30, 1995; and

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to her fellow union members have included five years of labor-management negotiation; two contract negotiations; countless grievance representations; and all of this in the most thorough, conscientious and principled manner; and

WHEREAS: That union representation has included this most difficult period of negotiating the membership's own lay-offs; and

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to both her co-workers and to the administration of her department have been characterized by tremendous energy, initiative, integrity, leadership, effectiveness and good humor; and

WHEREAS: That initiative has included playing a critical role in the functioning of the department in this difficult time of transition; and

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein's contributions to the City of Cambridge included her indispensable role in the movement to ensure equal treatment to domestic partners; and

WHEREAS: Susan Weinstein, a cum laude graduate of Boston University School of Law, has served the City as Assistant Council since 1990 with great distinction; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City extend it's thanks and appreciation to Susan Weinstein as she leaves employment with the City; and be it further

RESOLVED: that the City Clerk be and hereby is requested to prepare a suitably engrossed copy of this resolution for presentation to Susan Weinstein on behalf of the entire City Council.

entire membership
Consent Order #43

Councillor Triantafillou re: Thanks and appreciation to Susan Weinstein as she leaves employment with the City.

R-628

In City Council June 26, 1995

Order adopted.