Fax memo to: Sandra Albano

From: Frank Duehay

Subject: Below are two council orders for meeting of 6/26

Whereas Richard Lee of Cambridge started his teaching career 25 years ago as a volunteer reading to unemployed coal miners in Tennessee;

Whereas, after receiving his bachelor's degree at Sewanee University (the University of the South), he taught in Charlottesville, Virginia, and subsequently received his master's degree in vocational education from the University of Vermont;

Whereas Richard Lee, now in his 30th year of teaching at Minuteman Technology High School in Lexington, has been named 1995 Teacher of the Year at that institution;

Whereas Richard Lee feels that his greatest reward has been teaching students who feel they are not capable as a result of learning disabilities and helping them to prove that they are capable of substantial achievement;

Resolved that the Cambridge City Council hereby congratulates Richard Lee upon the occasion of his receiving the 1995 Teacher of the Year award from Minuteman Technology High School;

Further resolved that the Cambridge City Council commend Richard Lee's professional commitment and accomplishment which has resulted in such a profound influence on many of his students' lives.

Whereas some residents have found it difficult to gain a direct response about procedures in waiving the parking permit/visitors' pass system when hosting an event at their home;

Resolved that the City Manager be and hereby is requested to direct the Police and Traffic Departments to develop and submit to this City Council a written procedure for residents who wish to apply for permission to waive the parking permit/visitors' pass procedures on occasions where a function will be held at their house.
