

Cambridge, Feb. 20. 1900

To the Honorable, the City Council of the City of Cambridge:

The undersigned respectfully ~~prays~~ represents that under an order of the City Council resolved Nov. 9. 1899 a portion of his estate situated on Erie Street cor. of Waverley Street, was taken for the purpose of laying out said Erie Street, and he was subsequently awarded damages therefor in the sum of $200.00, the same being for 890 square feet of land more or less. This award was for the land only, and not for damages to fence and rebuilding the same, which he estimates at about $50.-

Wherefore he prays that such sum, or an amount which may be deemed equitable may be awarded to him, for the further damages before stated.

Alfred Bailey.
