To the Honorable, the Cambridge City Council

Free Summer Music Festivals in Central Square

I write to announce plans for the second annual series of musical and artistic performances in Central Square this summer, which will be free and open to the public.

We invite all members of the Cambridge artistic and performing public to perform at these free concerts. We are inviting to every Cambridge artist who is listed in the performer database of the Cambridge Arts Council, as well as hundreds of fliers, radio, cable TV, and newspaper, including the Phoenix and the Tab.

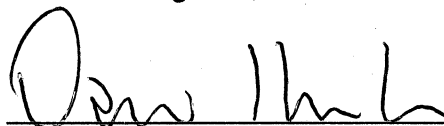

Last year, over a hundred artists in numerous different acts performed in Central Square. Performances are planned for various Fridays after work through September, as well as many Saturday and Sunday afternoons (excepting, for example, conflicts with the Caribbean Festival).

These will be low-key and friendly performances, to support our talented local artists. If you know of musicians or artists who would like to participate in future public concerts, we invite anyone who wishes to perform, especially those who live or work in Cambridge, to contact the following:

- ✓ Alan Nidle and Zeitgeist Gallery (876-2182)
- ✓ Ian MacKinnon (491-8971),
- ✓ Ralph Lopez, or
- ✓ myself, David Hoicka (547-4000)

These performances are being arranged on a non-profit basis, with volunteer help. We welcome advice and support from everyone.

Warmest regards,

David Hoicka,
547-4000
