

ALFRED E. VELLUCCI
MAYOR

CITY OF CAMBRIDGE
MASSACHUSETTS
P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS:-

Cambridge is indeed fortunate to have in its midst many fine nursing homes that give excellent service to many of our elderly citizens who would find life difficult in many instances were these facilities not available; and

WHEREAS:-

Mother's Day this year falls on Sunday, May 10th, 1970, a day set aside to honor the mothers in our country; and

Whereas:-

Many mothers are occupants of these nursing homes, and would appreciate a visit from their sons, daughters and relatives; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: -

That I Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge do hereby proclaim the week of May 10th-16th, 1970 as

NURSING HOME WEEK IN CAMBRIDGE

And urge all of our citizens who have friends and relatives in nursing homes to take the time to visit those who are unable to visit them with the advice that they will be better for it.

Alfred E. Vellucci

ALFRED E. VELLUCCI, MAYOR

Proclamation from Mayor Alfred E. Vellucci proclaiming week of May 10-16, 1970 as
NURSING HOME WEEK IN CAMBRIDGE

May 11, 1970

5/11/70

Placed on File