IN CITY COUNCIL

March 20, 1989

MAYOR VELLUCCI

- WHEREAS: The Community Development Block Grant Program has operated since 1974 to provide local governments with resources required to meet the needs of persons of low and moderate income; and
- WHEREAS: Community Development Block Grant Program funds have been used by municipal departments and non-profit corporations to provide essential community development, economic development, and human services to Cambridge residents through a broad range of programs and projects; and
- WHEREAS: Approximately 95% of the 44,864.000 in Federal CDBG funds received have been expended for activities which principally benefit low and moderate income residents of Cambridge; and
- WHEREAS: The Congress of the United States has designated March 24-31, 1989 as National Community Development Week and has called upon the President and all people of the United States to observe the week with appropriate ceremonies and activities; now therefore be it
- RESOLVED: That I, Alfred E. Vellucci, Mayor of the City of Cambridge, do hereby proclaim March 24-31, 1989 as Community Development Week and urge all of our citizens to participate in ceremonies and activities celebrating this observance.
