

Cambridge Bicycle Club,

81 NORTH AVENUE.

Cambridge April 14, 1888.

Hon. William E. Russell

Mayor of Cambridge.

Dear Sir: -

I respectfully call your attention to the lack of Guide Boards in Cambridge required by the provisions of Public Statutes chapter 53 as amended by Statute of 1887 chapter 162. There are several places at which it is important to have suitable guideboards. I particularly call your attention to North avenue, Concord avenue, Kirkland, Mt. Auburn, Brattle, Boylston, Cambridge, Main, and Brookline streets. These streets all lead to adjoining cities and towns, and signs so stating should at once be erected. Truly yours Geo. H. Perkins.

Dear Sir:

I would respectfully call your attention to Chap. 53, Sects. 1 to 5 inclusive, of the Public Statutes of Massachusetts, which have been amended by Act of the General Court, 1887, which adds the following to Sect. 1: "And shall erect and maintain such guide-posts at such forks or intersections of such highways and other ways as lead to adjoining towns or cities."

You would confer a favor by informing me, at your earliest convenience, if your town has erected, and is maintaining such guide-boards as the law requires, or, if not, what steps are being taken toward immediate compliance with the requirements of this law.

An early answer will oblige,

Yours respectfully,
