IN CITY COUNCIL

November 2, 1992

COUNCILLOR WALSH

WHEREAS: As a meeting has been held at City Hall under the auspices of certain City Councillors to discuss whether or not the citizens of Cambridge desire changes in the existing Charter or desire to be governed by a new Charter; and

WHEREAS: As an impromptu meeting was held with certain union leaders and a member of the City Council to informally discuss a Charter change; and

WHEREAS: Rumors continue that there is a movement to change the Charter; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to prepare a detailed report to the Council on the mechanism for Charter change describing in detail the difference between the existing Charter and any alternative Charters that are available so that the citizens of Cambridge can understand what the effects of a Charter change are and what the process is.
