

City of Cambridge

Original Order
33.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 24, 1995

COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: "Community Policing" is the clarion call for policing in the nineties; and

WHEREAS: Funding from the recently enacted federal "Crime Bill" will allow for the hiring of additional police officers; and

WHEREAS: The City's FY96 Budget will fund a full compliment of sworn law enforcement personnel (272) in the Police Department, for the first time in recent years; and

WHEREAS: This additional personnel should enable the police department to increase and/or have a presence in all neighborhoods of this city and therefore allow for greater interaction between police officer and residents and businesses; and

WHEREAS: Communities, such as Lowell have not only increased their sworn law enforcement personnel under the "Crime Bill," but have taken additional steps to get out into the neighborhoods by opening Police sub-stations in various sections of their City, as well as recently activated a new mobile police station, to deal with the roving nature of crime; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to consult with the Police Commissioner and report back to this City Council as to where we are and where we are going with Community Policing ("Neighborhood Policing").

City of Cambridge

Amended Order
33.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 24, 1995

- COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
- COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
- COUNCILLOR GALLUCCIO
- COUNCILLOR MYERS
- MAYOR REEVES
- VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
- COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: "Community Policing" is the clarion call for policing in the nineties; and

WHEREAS: Funding from the recently enacted federal "Crime Bill" will allow for the hiring of additional police officers; and

WHEREAS: The City's FY96 Budget will fund a full compliment of sworn law enforcement personnel (272) in the Police Department, for the first time in recent years; and

WHEREAS: This additional personnel should enable the police department to increase and/or have a presence in all neighborhoods of this city and therefore allow for greater interaction between police officer and residents and businesses; and

WHEREAS: Communities, such as Lowell have not only increased their sworn law enforcement personnel under the "Crime Bill," but have taken additional steps to get out into the neighborhoods by opening Police sub-stations in various sections of their City, as well as recently activated a new mobile police station, to deal with the roving nature of crime; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to consult with the Police Commissioner and report back to this City Council as to where we are and where we are going with Community Policing ("Neighborhood Policing") and if future operations include operating the proposed North Cambridge Substation, continuation of the Galleria Mall Substation and the Central Square Booth.

In City Council April 24, 1995
Adopted as amended by the affirmative vote of nine members.
Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury
D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

33

April 24, 1995

COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: "Community Policing" is the clarion call for policing in the nineties; and

WHEREAS: Funding from the recently enacted federal "Crime Bill" will allow for the hiring of additional police officers; and

WHEREAS: The City's FY 96 Budget will fund a full compliment of sworn law enforcement personnel (272) in the Police Department, for the first time in recent years; and

WHEREAS: This additional personnel should enable the police department to increase and/or have a presence in all the neighborhoods of this city and therefore allow for greater interaction between police officers and residents and businesses; and

WHEREAS: Communities, such as Lowell have not only increased their sworn law enforcement personnel under the "Crime Bill," but have taken additional steps to get out into the neighborhoods by opening Police sub-stations in various sections of their City, as well as recently activated a new mobile police station, to deal with the roving nature of crime. Now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager is hereby requested in consultation with the Police Commissioner and report back to this City Council as to where we are and where we are going with Community Policing ("Neighborhood Policing").

City of Cambridge

33.

IN CITY COUNCIL

April 24, 1995

COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN

WHEREAS: "Community Policing" is the clarion call for policing in the nineties; and

WHEREAS: Funding from the recently enacted federal "Crime Bill" will allow for the hiring of additional police officers; and

WHEREAS: The City's FY96 Budget will fund a full compliment of sworn law enforcement personnel (272) in the Police Department, for the first time in recent years; and

WHEREAS: This additional personnel should enable the police department to increase and/or have a presence in all neighborhoods of this city and therefore allow for greater interaction between police officer and residents and businesses; and

WHEREAS: Communities, such as Lowell have not only increased their sworn law enforcement personnel under the "Crime Bill," but have taken additional steps to get out into the neighborhoods by opening Police sub-stations in various sections of their City, as well as recently activated a new mobile police station, to deal with the roving nature of crime; now therefore be it

ORDERED: That the City Manager be and hereby is requested to consult with the Police Commissioner and report back to this City Council as to where we are and where we are going with Community Policing ("Neighborhood Policing").

Dubray Gallucci Myers
Reeves Russell Tranta-fillon

CM-171

Consent Order #33

Councillor Sullivan re: Where are we and where are we going with Community Policing ("Neighborhood Policing").

In City Council April 24, 1995

Order adopted as amended