

adoption of their budgets for next year, approval by Congress would create serious questions about both current and prospective impacts on local budgets and taxes;

Whereas failure to comply with the defunded programs mandated by Congress, for example, would subject cities and towns to criminal and civil liability;

Resolved that the Cambridge City Council inform Massachusetts Congressmen and Senators of the devastating effects these cuts would have on the citizens of Cambridge and urge the delegation to do everything in its power to oppose retroactive cuts in key municipal programs affecting community development, crime , mandates, and human investment.

Whereas House and Senate conferees began meeting on May 9 to reach agreement on retroactive cuts in current programs affecting cities, namely

Public and Assisted Housing

Community Development Block Grants

Safe Drinking Water Revolving Loan Fund

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program

Summer Youth Employment Program

Women, Infants and Children Feeding Program (WIC)

Whereas the Senate version makes $16.1 billion in retroactive spending cuts in domestic discretionary programs, including cutting funding to help cities comply with federal mandates, but it restores most of the House-passed cuts in housing, community development, anti-drug and crime, and children's programs;

Whereas the most immediate impacts on cities and towns, if the cuts are adopted, would likely fall on housing programs, public safety, and costs to comply with federal mandates;

Whereas with a majority of the nation's cities and towns near

City of Cambridge

16.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 15, 1995

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR MYERS
MAYOR REEVES
VICE MAYOR RUSSELL
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: House and Senate conferees began meeting on May 9 to reach agreement on retroactive cuts in current programs affecting cities, namely

Public and Assisted Housing

Community Development Block Grants

Safe Drinking Water Revolving Loan Fund

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program

Summer Youth Employment Program

Women, Infants and Children Feeding Program (WIC) and;

WHEREAS: The Senate version makes $16.1 billion in retroactive spending cuts in domestic discretionary programs, including cutting funding to help cities comply with federal mandates, but it restores most of the House-passed cuts in housing, community development, anti-drug and crime, and children's programs; and

WHEREAS: The most immediate impacts on cities and towns, if the cuts are adopted, would likely fall on housing programs, public safety, and costs to comply with federal mandates; and

WHEREAS: With a majority of the nation's cities and towns near adoption of their budgets for next year, approval by Congress would create serious questions about both current and prospective impacts on local budgets and taxes; and

WHEREAS: Failure to comply with the defunded programs mandated by Congress, for example, would subject cities and towns to criminal and civil liability; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council inform Massachusetts Congressmen and Senators of the devastating effects these cuts would have on the citizens of Cambridge and urge the delegation to do everything in its power to oppose retroactive cuts in key municipal programs affecting community development, crime, mandates, and human investment.

In City Council May 15, 1995

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:- D. Margaret Drury

D. Margaret Drury
City Clerk

City of Cambridge

16.

IN CITY COUNCIL

May 15, 1995

COUNCILLOR DUEHAY

WHEREAS: House and Senate conferees began meeting on May 9 to reach agreement on retroactive cuts in current programs affecting cities, namely

Public and Assisted Housing

Community Development Block Grants

Safe Drinking Water Revolving Loan Fund

Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program

Summer Youth Employment Program

Women, Infants and Children Feeding Program (WIC) and;

WHEREAS: The Senate version makes $16.1 billion in retroactive spending cuts in domestic discretionary programs, including cutting funding to help cities comply with federal mandates, but it restores most of the House-passed cuts in housing, community development, anti-drug and crime, and children's programs; and

WHEREAS: The most immediate impacts on cities and towns, if the cuts are adopted, would likely fall on housing programs, public safety, and costs to comply with federal mandates; and

WHEREAS: With a majority of the nation's cities and towns near adoption of their budgets for next year, approval by Congress would create serious questions about both current and prospective impacts on local budgets and taxes; and

WHEREAS: Failure to comply with the defunded programs mandated by Congress, for example, would subject cities and towns to criminal and civil liability; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the Cambridge City Council inform Massachusetts Congressmen and Senators of the devastating effects these cuts would have on the citizens of Cambridge and urge the delegation to do everything in its power to oppose retroactive cuts in key municipal programs affecting community development, crime, mandates, and human investment.

Born, Myers, Reeves, Russell
Thiantafillon Joomey

Consent Order #16

R-463

Councillor Duehay re: Retroactive cuts in current programs affecting cities.

In City Council May 15, 1995

Order adopted.