

City of Cambridge

56.

IN CITY COUNCIL

October 17, 1994

COUNCILLOR BORN
COUNCILLOR DUEHAY
COUNCILLOR SULLIVAN
COUNCILLOR TOOMEY
COUNCILLOR TRIANTAFILLOU

WHEREAS: On October 20, 1994, the first meeting of the newly formed School Food Advisory Group will take place at the Kennedy School at 6:00 p.m. Child care and a school food service prepared meal will be provided to all parents who join the group; and

WHEREAS: The idea for the formation of this group grew out of discussions in the City Council Hunger Committee (now the Food Policy Committee) about the school food service-prepared meals provided through the Summer Food Program; and

WHEREAS: Many people participated in these meetings and deserve recognition for the time and ideas they contributed including Marilyn Tompkins, director of the School Food Service whose open-minded approach to planning and willingness to listen have made this effort a reality, School Committee member Henrietta Davis, Jill Herold, Director of Human Services which administers the Summer Food Program, Jerry Bergman, director of the Cambridge Food Pantry; and

WHEREAS: The School Food Advisory Group will be a way of drawing diverse people in Cambridge together to address the value we put on healthy food for our children regardless of their ability to pay for it; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record in support of this new effort and extend its appreciation to those who conceived the idea and to those parents who take the time to participate.

In City Council October 17, 1994.

Adopted by the affirmative vote of nine members.

Attest:- D. Margaret Drury, City Clerk.

A true copy;

ATTEST:-

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "D. Margaret Drury".

D. Margaret Drury,
City Clerk

56.

BORN

Whereas: On October 20, the first meeting of the newly formed School Food Advisory group will take place at the Kennedy School at 5 P.M. Child care and a school food service prepared meal will be provided to all parents who join the group, and

Whereas: The idea for the formation of this group grew out of discussions in the City Council Hunger Committee (now the Food Policy Committee) about the school food service-prepared meals provided through the Summer Food Program, and

Whereas: Many people participated in these meetings and deserve recognition for the time and ideas they contributed including Marilyn Tompkins, director of the School Food Service whose open-minded approach to planning and willingness to listen have made this effort a reality, School Committee member Henrietta Davis, Jill Herold, Director of Human Services which administers the Summer Food Program, Jerry Bergman, director of the Cambridge Food Pantry, and

Whereas: The School Food Advisory Group will be a way of drawing diverse people in Cambridge together to address the value we put on healthy food for our children regardless of their ability to pay for it, therefore be it

Resolved: That the City Council go on record in support of this new effort and extend its appreciation to those who conceived the idea and to those parents who take the time to participate.

City of Cambridge

56.

IN CITY COUNCIL

October 17, 1994

COUNCILLOR BORN

WHEREAS: On October 20, 1994, the first meeting of the newly formed School Food Advisory Group will take place at the Kennedy School at 6:00 p.m. Child care and a school food service prepared meal will be provided to all parents who join the group; and

WHEREAS: The idea for the formation of this group grew out of discussions in the City Council Hunger Committee (now the Food Policy Committee) about the school food service-prepared meals provided through the Summer Food Program; and

WHEREAS: Many people participated in these meetings and deserve recognition for the time and ideas they contributed including Marilyn Tompkins, director of the School Food Service whose open-minded approach to planning and willingness to listen have made this effort a reality, School Committee member Henrietta Davis, Jill Herold, Director of Human Services which administers the Summer Food Program, Jerry Bergman, director of the Cambridge Food Pantry; and

WHEREAS: The School Food Advisory Group will be a way of drawing diverse people in Cambridge together to address the value we put on healthy food for our children regardless of their ability to pay for it; now therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the City Council go on record in support of this new effort and extend its appreciation to those who conceived the idea and to those parents who take the time to participate.

Duehay Sullivan, Joomey
Consent Order #56 R-645
Trantafillon
Councillor Born re: School Food
Advisory Group.

In City Council,

October 17, 1994

Order adopted