Committee of Conference
with Boston,

new bridge across Charles River.

Jan. 8. 1882.

City of Cambridge.

Common Council,
~~In Board of Aldermen,~~

Dec. 27 1882

~~Address,~~

The Joint Special Committee, which was appointed to confer with a like Committee of the City Council of Boston in reference to the construction and maintenance of an additional bridge across Charles River, and which was also "instructed to confer with the Charles River Embankment Company, to ascertain what arrangements, if any, may be made to secure land necessary for an avenue of approach across the land of said company to the proposed new bridge"

Report,

That your Committee has had the matter aforesaid under consideration, but owing to the shortness of the time allowed for its action therein, has been unable to complete any arrangements in relation to the same. The Committee would recommend, in view of its importance to the interests of the city, that the entire matter of the proposed new bridge, with the views of the present City Council relating thereto, be referred to the next City Council, with the further commendation of the same, to its favorable consideration.

For the Committee,

Samuel W. W. Daniel
