

Sylvia Saavedra Keber, Term expires 1995, upon reappointment

Ms. Saavedra Keber is Latina. She is an affirmative action/employment training specialist, a local civil rights activist, and currently works with immigrant and refugee populations. Has served on the Education & Outreach Committee.

Mercedes Sherrod Evans, Term Expires 1995, upon reappointment

Ms. Sherrod Evans is African American. She is an equal employment opportunity specialist, and an attorney with extensive experience in civil rights law enforcement and affirmative action program administration. Has served on the Investigations Committee.

THREE YEAR TERMS: 1992 TO 1995

Rev. Jephthet Roseme, 220 Franklin Street Apt #1, Cambridge 02139

Mr. Roseme is a local minister and a representative of the city's Haitian community. He brings to the Commission exceptional skills as an educator and advocate for immigrant rights, and extensive contacts with a segment of our citizenry not recently represented on the CHRC. We welcome his contribution to the Education and Outreach Committee.

Ms. Irlet Anderson, 21 Fresh Pond Place, Cambridge 02138

Ms. Anderson is African American. She brings considerable experience in the justice system as a court reporter and law enforcement consultant. She also has extensive contacts with the local police department. When allegations of civil rights violations qualify as criminal actions, it is imperative that such a resource be present on our Commission. We welcome her contributions to the Investigations and/or Education and Outreach Committee.

Mr. John O'S Francis, 99 Hancock Street, Cambridge 02139

Mr. O'S Francis is African American. He is a long time resident of the City of Cambridge, with extensive experience in the field of fair housing law enforcement and the administration of affordable housing programs. He brings extensive experience in federal government and as a private consultant. As the CHRC expands its relationship with the federal Department of Housing and Urban Development, his skills will prove invaluable to the Investigations Committee.

TWO YEAR TERMS: 1992-1994

Ms. Susan Rich, 30 Bow Street, Cambridge 02138

Ms. Rich is of Jewish heritage. She brings to the Commission extensive experience in the field of human rights advocacy and education as a Program Coordinator with Amnesty International, and other global human rights and development organizations. Her contacts with the international human rights community are an important resource for the Commission to utilize in the sponsorship of local Educational and Outreach Committee programs.

Ms. Nilgun Gokgur, 75 Francis Avenue, Cambridge 02138

Ms. Gokgur is of Turkish-Moslem heritage. She is an economist at Harvard University Graduate School of Business Administration. She brings to the Commission extensive academic and research credentials. She has considerable experience working in developing countries in a number of multicultural settings. In addition to her contacts with the academic community, special projects requiring statistical analysis will greatly benefit from her presence on Commission's Investigations and/or Education and Outreach Committees.
